I know the author and the woman who inspired it Both awesome people and the book really captures the essence of carrying the cross we all must bear It is inspirational Good book for churches nursing homes and any type of ministry to have on hand to assist with counseling An edifying and inspirational short story The Procession of Cross Bearers serves to motivate all people of faith when the burdens of life become too difficult to bear for even one more day or one more step This brief allegory is in the same vein as Bunyan s The Pilgrim s Progress or C S Lewis The Great Divorce and is appropriate for both younger and more mature adults as they make their way through an often treacherous world that tempts us to despair of hope About the Author A former Protestant pastor Jon Horst Hoyer is a Midwest writer who has written extensively on many subjects most recently on the Seymour Avenue kidnappings and rescue which occurred in his hometown and on the street where he grew up in Clevel
