13 of 14 review helpful Magical By M J Costa A charming and touching childrens novel that I didn't discover until age 52 it was written in England by a former Congregationalist minister in the time of Queen Victoria It is the story of a frail impoverished child and his family facing difficult circumstances in Dickensian London While on the surface it seems a simple story it is a stylistically sophisticated A classic children s story written in England in 1871 this enchanting fairy tale follows a sweet little stable boy in Victorian London who goes on adventures with the majestic North Wind She is personified as a lovely and mysterious woman both severe and kind who teaches young Diamond about herself on their journeys The innocent perceptive Diamond is caught up by this powerful entity and he acts as the perfect character for MacDonald to acknowledge social injustice About the Author GEORGE MACDONALD 1824 1905 was a Scottish pastor poet and novelist who had a large impact on the later writings of C S Lewis and J R R Tolkien He is best known for his fantasy novels such as Phantastes The Prince and the Goblin
