0 of 0 review helpful Great story By Wendy Albright This book is outside of my typical genre while I love Christian Fiction the historical piece would typically have steered me away However the book was recommended to me and I was pleasantly surprised This Biblically based yet fictitious account of the story between King David and his first wife Michal reads like a romance novel I typically shamefully get so The Bible often tells us who what and where but rarely why There are so many questions in this romance gone wrong story of King David and his wife Michal This story provides answers
